

2020 PASSION TO PURPOSE TO GOLD PROJECT

HOW TO MAKE THE 2020 PASSION TO PURPOSE EXPERIENCE ELIGIBLE FOR YOUR GOLD AWARD

WHAT IS PASSION TO PURPOSE?

Passion to Purpose is a program delivered by the Duke of Edinburgh's International Award - Canada. It aims to empower young Canadians to create meaningful service-led projects in their communities. Through the P2P program and in partnership with the Federal Government, young Canadians have the opportunity to apply for a community grant of up to $2,000 in an effort to bring the projects to life.

TIMEFRAME

Passion to Purpose Virtual Conference and Gold Project Briefing (4 hrs)

Participants attend the Passion to Purpose Virtual Conference to be held on Saturday, November 14, 2020. This conference includes a keynote speaker, a grant workshop, and mental health education. The P2P to Gold Project Briefing will happen after the main conference.

Support Groups (3 hrs)

Those who identify in advance of the conference (via registration form) as Gold Project Participants will be placed in support groups of up to seven (7) participants. Lead by a Mentor (Award Staff/Award Volunteer), each group will meet 3 times within the next 5 weeks after the Forum for a minimum of 1 hour per session. These meetings will be an opportunity for participants to work together to share and solve issues involving their projects.

Planning and Grant Application

Over 5 weeks, the participant will plan their project. This can also include additional meetings within the Support Group (without the Mentor). Participants must apply for a Passion to Purpose Grant by December 19, 2020.
